

Pottery Demonstration and Workshop
Instructor: Kenneth Rieman

July 18 and 19, 2016 9:00am - 4:00pm

$150.00 for both days, non-refundable $50.00 deposit

Headwaters Art and Conference Center - 20 Stalnaker St., Dubois, Wyoming Class size limited to 6

(only six throwing wheels, five electric and one kick wheel)

Please bring a towel, comfortable work cloths and any favorite tools if you have any;
if not tools and equipment will be provided.

This two day workshop will focus on the basic skills for throwing small and large ceramics on the wheel. Subjects ranging from clay preparations, centering, and throwing vessels through trimming, handle and sprig attachment, and finishing the piece will be covered. Several techniques for throwing large vessels will be shown. The afternoon session will allow the participants to practice on the provided wheels. Questions are encouraged. Due to the short nature of the class, firing and glazing cannot be completed. Other arrangements may be discussed.

Kenneth Rieman is a professional, part time potter residing in Lander Wyoming. He has studied under 5 MFA ceramic instructors over the course of 30 years and has been inspired by Sung Dynasty Imperial Ceramics. Kenneth's work is exhibited in Lander and Casper at the 321 Gallery. He was awarded the Best of Show at the 2014 WAA with his Blue Celadon glazed porcelain piece.
