

Still Life Oil Workshop

Instructor: Tom Lucas

Oct 10-14 2016

9am-4pm daily

$300.00 (5 sessions) $50.00 Deposit (non-refundable)

Headwaters Arts and Conference Center - 20 Stalnaker St, Dubois, WY

The Headwaters is a year round conference facility for national and educational conferences, art and music workshops and corporate retreats.

Class Limit: 10

Things you will need:

Bring your own easel, canvases, paints, brushes, odorless turpentine, paper towels and plenty of determination.

Oils for limited palette: White (Titanium), French Ultramarine, Raw Umber, Burnt Umber, Yellow Ochre, Cad Yellow, Cad Red, Alizarin Crimson, Terra Rose, Prussian Blue and Liquin.

The workshop will focus on:

Learn how to see what you are painting. Students will paint from still life subjects including Native American items. There will be several still life set-ups with plenty of room to move around the room. The class will cover everything from setting up a still life to learning to see beyond the subject while working with a limited palette. The basics of composition, color, values, and edges and how to approach different surfaces of a subject will be explored using Tom Lucas's unique perspective which can bring a painting to life.

Artist Tom Lucas is a professional oil painter and an Associate member of the Oil Painters of America. He has studied under David Leffel and Sherrie McGraw and has developed his own still life style capturing his Western and outdoors roots in Wyoming. Tom paintings are exhibited throughout the west and have won recent awards at Wind River Arts Guild in Dubois WY, the Green House Gallery in San Antonio, TX and the Death Valley Art Show, CA. His Native American still life work has been featured by Southwest Art 2008-2009, Western Art Collector-2010, and the American Art Collector-2011. His hand-crafted Native American crafts are on display at Dubois Museum, in many private collections and have been purchased by Yellowstone National Park. Visit Tom Lucas at www.tomlucasartist.us.
